

ELECTRONIC MESSAGE CENTERS NOW MORE AFFORDABLE

Have you ever considered an electronic message center for your business and decided it was just too expensive? Maybe it's time to look again. The cost have dropped dramatically. The product is better and there is virtually no maintenance, the power consumption is extremely low and Jones has a guaranteed finance program for EMCs at rates that are close to prime. You can get this powerful marketing tool working for you for just a few hundred dollars per month Call us for all the information

If you already have an EMC that is over 5 years old, it's time to consider upgrading. The latest models are maintenance free, brighter, use less power and can display far more graphics than older units. Jones has a market for the older units and can offer you a fair trade-in value.
